

Nick Palmer: Public Address Announcer

Nick Palmer is the public address announcer for numerous Marquette athletic events ranging from freshman football to boys regional basketball. 2010 marks his first all-star game.

Entering his senior year at Marquette, Palmer has also done numerous works for local radio stations from ESPN 970's Saturday morning high school football coaches show to Marquette Football and Basketball for Great Lakes Radio. The biggest contest Nick has announced at this point in his broadcast career was the Boys Class C Regional Final between Gwinn and Rudyard.

Nick is undecided on where he would like to attend college but he will be majoring in broadcasting, with the goal of becoming a sports broadcaster.
